

THE NEIL RANKIN AWARD – WOLLI CREEK PRESERVATION SOCIETY

Nominations are invited from parents, students, schools and members of the general public for the Neil Rankin Award. In memory of Neil Rankin (known as the 'Birdman of Wollli Creek'), the award is to recognise excellent work already completed by primary schools, community organisations and individual students, fostering children's enjoyment and understanding of the natural world.

Nominations will be accepted for a whole school, a class or an individual student for projects undertaken during the past 2 years in the Canterbury, Marrickville or Rockdale area.

Nominations close 30 August 2013. Awards and prizes up to $250 for individuals and groups will be presented during Children's Week in October 2013.
